

2. Why was the right against self-incrimination asserted by some religious persons and by other persons living in England?

3. Who was John Lilburne and what was the significance of his case to the Fifth and Sixth Amendments? (See Chapter One, The First Amendment, Lesson Six A.)

4. Why did the jury trial come into use in England?

5. What provisions in the constitutions of Virginia, Pennsylvania, and Massachusetts were similar to provisions in the federal Bill of Rights?

6. Review and list the steps for the adoption of the Bill of Rights from Chapter One, Lesson Six D.